- Centre fails to adhere to its internal appeals procedure
- Centre applied for the wrong post-results service/for the wrong script for a candidate
- Centre missed awarding body deadline to apply for a post-results service
- Centre applied for a post-results service for a candidate without gaining required candidate consent/permission

Additional grounds for complaint relating to results and post-results:

Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Jumeirah English Speaking School encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by getting in contact either via email or telephonically to the subject teacher, Tutor, Head of department or the Head of year..

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to Richard Malpass. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within 2 working days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must contact Mr Malpass, he will advise how to proceed with a formal complaint.

How a formal complaint is investigated

Mr Malpass will look into the complaint and speak to all relevant parties, the complaint will be addressed with the parties involved. Each party will be able to give information regarding the complaint, and how to resolve any future issues.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within 7 working days.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must contact the exams officer who will be able to provide them with an internal appeals form, the appeals form need to completed and signed and will then be submitted to Mr Green..

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within 2 working days.

The appeal will be referred to Mr Green.

It will be the responsibility of Mr Green to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
